Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 22nd, 2017

Sunday Readings: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6 I am the Lord, there is no other. 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the holy Spirit. Matthew 22:15-21 [Jesus said,] "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God."

Paying What We Owe God By Mary Katharine Deeley

We are long removed from our country's traditional tax season, but I always think about it when I read today's Gospel. It's nice to know that the debate about paying taxes was going on more than 2,000 years ago. Part of the issue for the Jews was that Caesar considered himself a god, and paying taxes seemed like worshipping a false god.

We don't pay taxes to a false god, but many of us would like more say over where our money goes and don't feel that our representatives always speak for us.

Jesus didn't get involved in the debate then, and he will not now. But his answer gives us something to think about: What do we owe God?

God loved us into being, knew us in our mother's womb, and called each of us to a life with him. When we turned our backs, God redeemed us through the Incarnation and the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. God has promised to be with us always and is, through the Holy Spirit, guiding us through the ages until the end of days.

If we could look at our heart and soul, we'd find only one image stamped there: God's. We owe him nothing less than ourselves. The world can take all we possess, but it cannot take away our identity as children of God. The world can have the fruits of our labour, but God alone has our being and fulfills our desires.

How do we pay what we owe God? By loving others, using our gifts and abilities for the glory of his name and, in every way, living in a manner worthy of the reign of God.

Let's start paying that now.

Catholic Hospital Chaplaincy continues, thanks to your generous gifts to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Although the publicly-funded hospital department of spiritual care has been eliminated because of provincial government budget cuts, Catholic chaplains (along with volunteer visitors who are trained and supported by the diocesan office of Hospital Chaplaincy) continue to accompany patients and families in times of sickness, suffering and crisis at Saskatoon City and Royal University Hospitals – including Catholic patients from rural areas who otherwise would have no spiritual support. Spiritual care also continues at St. Paul's Hospital, thanks to donations to that facility. For spiritual or pastoral care at Saskatoon City or Royal University Hospitals call Jackie Saretsky at the Catholic Centre: (306) 659-5839 or (306) 292-5531 or e-mail: hospitalchaplaincy@saskatoonrcdiocese.com At St. Paul's Hospital inquire at the nursing desk, or call (306) 655-5000 and ask them to page Spiritual Care.

ATTENTION LADIES OF THE PARISH!

The Catholic Women's League invites all Catholic women to join us. Our members contribute to the life and vitality of the church, the family, and the community. Women from all walks of life are called to be involved; the greater diversity brings richness to the League. Some ladies join for fun and friendships; some to develop a deeper appreciation of the Catholic faith; some to support us by prayer, even if they can't make meetings or other events; some to develop leadership skills as part of the largest national organization of Catholic women in Canada; some because resolutions which are formulated in local councils are presented annually to governments as statements of concern and in keeping with our motto: 'For God and Canada'. Would you please consider joining our CWL council? For more information there are pamphlets on our table in the welcome area, or check on the website: cwl.ca. Memberships will be sold after all the masses in October.

An update on Spiritual Care in the hospitals: If you or someone you love has spent any time in the hospitals in Saskatoon, you've probably been visited by the hospital chaplain, Fr. Rheal, and by some volunteers bringing communion. Recent provincial budget cuts have caused the elimination of Spiritual Care departments at City Hospital and RUH. It used to be the case that everyone who was admitted to the hospital was asked their religious practice. If they identified themselves as Catholic, the Spiritual Care department at the hospital would notify Fr. Rheal and the Catholic volunteers. With the end of the Spiritual Care department, that won't happen anymore. If you or someone you love goes to the hospital, please notify the parish office. We'll let Fr. Rheal and the Catholic volunteers know, and they'll be able to visit you as they always have. If you don't let us know, we have no way of knowing you're there.
