16th Sunday in Ordinary Time— July 18th, 2021

Sunday Readings

Jeremiah 23:1–6: I will raise up shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear or be terrified; none shall be missing.

Ephesians 2:13–18: Now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ.

Mark 6:30–34: His heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

The Source of all Forgiveness

In his 1622 painting The Penitent St. Mary Magdalene, Giovanni Francesco Barbieri, known as Guercino, portrays Mary Magdalene with shoulders uncovered and disheveled hair. These details remind us of her shameful past without defining her present. Rather, it is her humble, penitent spirit from which her heroic love for Jesus springs. The sinful Mary, who had been forgiven so much, is also one who has loved much.

One angel holds out before her the symbols of the passion to remind Magdalene of the ransom her Beloved paid to set her free from sin. A second angel pointing to heaven reminds her that these nails no longer bind him. Or as the angel would tell Mary Magdalene in the garden, "He is not here, for he has been raised" (Matthew 28:6).

Many mistakenly conflate Mary Magdalene with the unknown woman from Luke 7:36–50. The woman offers an act of humility by breaking into the dinner party of Simon and sobbing over the feet of Jesus. She bathes his feet with tears of repentance and dries them with her lovely hair. Despite the confusion, we admire this woman's and Mary's humility. Neither were too proud to repent.

The painting is called The Penitent St. Mary Magdalene because Mary looks purposely like a person kneeling in confession. Speaking with head downcast, she admits her failures. And as in confession, the representative of God sits on the other side encouraging her to consider Jesus' passion, love, and mercy. The angel in the center reminds Mary to whom she is really confessing. By pointing to heaven, we are all reminded of the source from whom all forgiveness comes. +

Re-open Saint Anne's

We are so happy to announce our plans as we are allowed to open up further and come together as a full community. We have some exciting events planned and look forward to seeing you there! Watch the bulletin and the Snapshot for more information about each event.

- July 11th: No more mask requirements, capacity limits, or registering to come to Mass
- July 17-18th: Return of usual Mass ministries
- July 24th: Parish Garage Sale & Parish Movie Night
- August 29th: Parish Carnival

Together again!

How we come together

As we continue to reopen, especially with the removal of restrictions this weekend, we know that some will be very excited to take off masks and gather together again. We know that others will be more cautious and concerned. Please keep this in mind as we come together:

Accept each other – Some people won't wear masks anymore and some people will. Let's allow each other to be different. If you offer to shake someone's hand and they aren't ready yet, let that be okay. If someone wants to sit or talk close to you and you aren't comfortable, feel free to say, "Sorry, but I need some space." Let's be aware and understanding of each other.

It's okay to try – If you've been away from Church and spent a lot of time isolating in the past year, it might be hard to gather around people again. It's okay to try. Maybe the first time you come to mass you have to leave after 15 minutes. That's okay. Maybe next week you'll make it to 20 minutes, or maybe you'll have to leave after 10. This might take time, and that's okay.

Use the hall if you need more space – We are going to keep the hall available for those who want to come to Mass in person but want to make sure they have plenty of space. If you choose to attend Mass in the hall, please let an usher know so we can make sure the video feed is sent to the hall and someone brings you Communion.

If you have any questions, concerns, or anything else you need to help us come together well, please let us know.

Reconciliation and healing for residential school survivors and their communities- financial appeal announced by Saskatchewan bishops:

The five Catholic bishops of Saskatchewan July 13 released more details about a planned fund-raising appeal entitled "Catholic TRC healing response." The Saskatchewan bishops said that the appeal's goal is "to support Residential School survivors and their communities and to engage more deeply in our own ongoing commitment and response to the Truth and Reconciliation process" with funds going to the priorities of healing and reconciliation; cemeteries on the sites of former residential schools; and education and cultural support. "We are collaborating with potential participants, and consulting with Indigenous dialogue partners, including Survivors, Elders, Knowledge Keepers, Chiefs, and other community members. Out of these conversations, each diocese and eparchy will discern and communicate separately how they will proceed with the appeal in their respective dioceses and communities," said the bishops. For those who wish to donate immediately or make a long-term pledge, see the online giving options at: <https://dscf.ca/catholic-trc-healing-response>.

Parish Movie Night: UP!

Following our garage sale and 5 p.m. Mass on Saturday, July 24th, we will have a showing of UP by Pixar in the parish hall. Entry fee is by donation and includes BBQ, popcorn, and juice! All donations go to our sister parish in Malawi. For details on how to RSVP for the movie night or to volunteer for the garage sale, please visit ym.saintannes.ca!

Summer Fun & Faith for Youth!

Stay tuned as we've got a lot of fun ways to stay connected and serve over the summer!

For those entering or in high school there's IGNITE (August 1-6th overnight in-person) and IGNITE ONLINE (August 24-26th from the comfort of home). IGNITE SK 2021 will be happening August 1-6th at St. Therese Institute in Bruno, SK.

With the re-opening phases of the province, overnight camps are allowed and we are excited to be in person this year! Ignite is a week-long Catholic summer camp for teens (going into grade 9 through graduating grade 12) who desire to grow in holiness! This jam-packed week is filled with excellent talks, amazing people, epic large group activities, daily Mass, Adoration, praise and worship, and much more. Youth will grow in their relationship with God and be empowered to go forward while striving to be a modern-day saint and a light to the world! If financial concerns are holding you back or if you'd love to help sponsor a youth to experience Catholic summer camp, please contact Colm at the parish! More details and to register today- www.f2f.ca/ignite
