Do you want to go to Motion Fitness?

Fr. Matthew has eight months left on a one year membership at Motion Fitness that he can't use when he moves to Unity. They can't give a refund, but he can transfer the membership to someone else. Contact Fr. Matthew at mramsay@rcdos.ca if you're interested.

"Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he brought them out from their distress; he stilled the storm to a whisper; and the waves of the sea were hushed. Then they were glad when it grew calm, and he guided them to their desired haven. Let them thank the Lord for his unfailing love, for his wonderful deeds for the children of Adam."

Psalm 107: 28-31

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time– June 23rd, 2024

A Real Force of Nature

Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

One of the forces of nature that we have been unable to control is unruly water. We are actually helpless when caught between torrents of rain from above and surging water from below. It is no wonder the ancestors of ancient Israel who lived between the Tigris and Euphrates rivers characterized cosmic evil as tumultuous water that only the great creator-God could control. This is the scene described in the reading from Job. This water is not destroyed; it is only harnessed. We will have to wait for the end of time for such water to be abolished. ("The sea was no more" Revelation 21:1.) This divine power over water is praised in the psalm response as well. Belief in God's absolute power over chaotic water and cosmic evil lies behind the story of Jesus calming the sea. This story doesn't simply recount a display of Jesus' extraordinary command over the forces of nature. While certainly that, it is actually much more. It stands to reason that, if only the great creator-God can exercise control over this fearsome watery threat, and if Jesus can effortlessly exercise control over such water, then Jesus is somehow God. In today's Gospel, the audacious disciples, who initially were frightened by the ferocity of the squall, were astounded by Jesus' authority over the storm. They declared, "Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?" (Mark 4:41). It is clear from this story that Jesus is the real force of nature.
