Who Do You Think You Are? -Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

This question is not always posed in a spirit of lightheartedness. It could be hurled at someone in indignation. This indignation might be justified; the other could be assuming an unwarranted attitude of superiority. However, the fault could be our own. We might resent another's genuine insight or unquestionable wisdom. There seems to be within some of us a sense of inferiority that is threatened by the abilities of others—as if their talents diminish those who feel inferior. And what do we do about this? We might ignore such an individual, implying that she or he has nothing that interests us. This probably happens more often than we like to admit. Or we might try to embarrass the person, thus lowering the individual in the estimation of others. This is how some people depicted in the Gospel passage acted toward Jesus.

Prophets are not people who only look into the future. Such people are called seers. Genuine prophets have insight into the present, understanding the implications of the social forces that are operative and the challenge they might pose to religious traditions. That's why they are so often resented. We see this attitude in the passage from Ezekiel. God sent him to a rebellious people to call them to repentance. Chances are, this did not make him popular. It also did not make Jesus popular with some. So often we applaud people who have religious insight—unless we know them well. Then we may think, You're no better than the rest of us. Who do you think you are?

Prayer requests

We pray for those in our community who are sick, suffering or in hospital; especially those on our list of the sick: may they be comforted in their time of need and be restored to good health. We pray for those who have died, especially Don Nakoneshny, husband to Rita, father of Yvonne, Jeanne, Reg, Rob, and Russ -on the 1st Anniversary of his death; may they rejoice in the reward of everlasting life.

Hello! My name is Belle Berry and I have been a parishioner at St Anne's for the past 12 years. I'm happy to say that in the fall I will be attending St Therese Institute of Faith and Mission in Bruno Sk. While I'm there I'm hoping to develop a deeper relationship with God, learn more about my Catholic faith, strengthen my understanding and appreciation for the sacraments and be surrounded by a strong Catholic community. I would appreciate all of your prayers and also, if you would like to support me financially I would be so grateful! Please contact me for more information on how to support me in this way!
