You Can Do It. -Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Today's readings are about unpretentious people who accomplished remarkable deeds. Amos, a shepherd from the southern kingdom of Judah who also cultivated sycamore figs, challenged the people at a northern shrine in Israel. He did not come from an illustrious family, nor was he particularly important. Yet he is the one called by God to summon the northern Israelites to repentance. The disciples of Jesus pursued family businesses like fishing or were employed by the Romans like Matthew. They didn't come from socially prominent families, nor were they known as community leaders. But look at what they did: they cast out demons and cured the sick. Where did these people get their training? More importantly, where did they obtain their power? We find the answer to such questions in the second reading: "In him we were also chosen" (Ephesians 1:11). We are assured that God "has blessed us in Christ with every spiritual blessing in the heavens" (Ephesians 1:3). We don't have to worry about performing miracles; all we have to do is open ourselves to the graciousness of God. God will do the rest. Through us, God will cast out the demons of prejudice and bias that plague our world, of selfishness and spitefulness so prominent in our political rivalries, of greed and dishonesty in many of our social interactions. Through us, God will heal our country, our world, and our Church of hatred, violence, and oppression. With Amos and the Twelve we too hear: "You can do it."

Prayer requests

We pray for those in our community who are sick, suffering or in hospital; especially those on our list of the sick: may they be comforted in their time of need and be restored to good health. We pray for those who have died, especially Margaret Podilsky, mother of Natalia & Jim Stinn, may they rejoice in the reward of everlasting life.

Hello! My name is Belle Berry and I have been a parishioner at St Anne's for the past 12 years. I'm happy to say that in the fall I will be attending St Therese Institute of Faith and Mission in Bruno Sk. While I'm there I'm hoping to develop a deeper relationship with God, learn more about my Catholic faith, strengthen my understanding and appreciation for the sacraments and be surrounded by a strong Catholic community. I would appreciate all of your prayers and also, if you would like to support me financially I would be so grateful! Please contact me for more information on how to support me in this way!
