St Anne's Centering Prayer group will meet every Wednesday at 3:15 in the Livingroom. During the month there will be a short introduction to what Centering Prayer is and how easy it is to commune with God without words. If you ever wanted to know more about the "Prayer of the Heart" please join us. For information call Donna at 306 236-7113.

Confirmation Preparation: There's still time to register! Confirmation is an amazing sacrament to encounter God in a powerful way and be filled with the fullness of the Holy Spirit to grow in faith and service. Open to youth in Grade 6 or older. Please contact Colm and see our registration page at www.saintannes.ca/confirmation to begin the process!

Many of you are aware that we are currently in our membership drive for 2025. Our CWL offers spiritual, faith, and many fun based programs to our members along with monthly speakers from community programs looking for assistance; bake sales; funeral lunches; speaking with the Federal Government on issues surrounding our faith, in order to continue doing the important work we do for our parish community and Canada. We are asking you to consider joining our cause and becoming a member of our CWL council.

Following becoming a member, and with ongoing leadership and other training being offered, we hope you will consider taking on more responsibilities or roles on our executive. Our CWL members receive many blessings through these new friendships, programs and training. If you have 3-4 hours a month to offer to this ministry, either as a helper on CWL events or perhaps considering letting your name stand for nomination to the 2025-2026 CWL Council, we need you. Our Nomination Process closes November 15. Nomination forms are available at the back of the church on the CWL cabinet. Please place your nomination form in the Nomination Box on that same counter. We will also be available after the masses the weekend of November 2-3 to take memberships, (new or renewals), or provide additional information on our Council and on roles of our executive. We look forward to speaking with you. We Pray that many of us will hear these words 'Here I am Lord, send me!'

For more information do not hesitate to contact Anne Ashcroft at 306-713-1612 or anyone on our current executive. God Bless you in your prayerful consideration of joining our CWL in whatever capacity works for you.

A memorial mass for deceased members of St. Anne's CWL and the Knights of Columbus will take place on Tuesday, November 5th at 7:00 p.m. Please join us as we honour the men and women from these organizations who served our councils, our parish and our community with faith, dedication and love.

The memorial mass will be followed by a CWL general meeting in the Church. All women of the parish are invited to join us at our general meeting.

St. Anne's CWL will be collecting items for the Christmas Collection for the CWL Clothing Depot from October 15th - November 15th. They are requesting the following items: NEW toys, Christmas decorations, towels, blankets, kitchen items and individually wrapped candies or small chocolate bars to be put in cups. Other ideas: toys (puzzles, games, dolls, cars, etc., no books please); towels, tea towels, sheets, pillows and pillowcases; socks, underwear; blankets, comforters; jewelry; health and beauty accessories; and other suitable gift items. As this is for their Christmas collection, we will NOT be collecting books or clothes at this time. If you are able to donate any of the requested items, please drop them off in the baskets found in each entrance. If you prefer to give a cash donation, cheques can be made out to CWL Clothing Depot, and mailed to: 619 -20St West, Saskatoon, S7M 0X8. Thank you so very much for your support of the CWL Clothing Depot.

We pray for the repose of the souls of our loved ones; especially Kerrie Anderson, and all those written in our book of remembrance, that in the fullness of time all the dead will be raised to abundant life.

Heavenly Father, thank you for the precious gift of life.
Help us to cherish and protect this gift, even in the midst of fear, pain, and suffering.
Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable, and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.
Grant us the humility to accept help when we are in need, and teach us to be merciful to all. Through our words and actions, may others encounter the outstretched hands of Your mercy.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

31st Sundays in Ordinary Time– November 3rd, 2024

Take to Heart These Words -Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

"Hear, O Israel!" (Deuteronomy 6:4) are the first words of the most important declaration of faith for Jewish people, a declaration that is the centerpiece of the morning and evening Jewish prayer services. It is a kind of "pledge of allegiance" that observant Jews say even today, reminding themselves of the uniqueness of their God and the covenantal relationship they have with this God. In it, they confess that the Lord is their God—their only God. Out of reverence, they do not pronounce God's personal name. In its place, they substitute the word Lord. Behind this act of faith is the covenantal promise of God: "I will be your God and you shall be my people" (Jeremiah 7:23).

This covenant carries mutual responsibilities. God will be their God and will be faithful to all that this blessing entails. As God's people, they will live according to the standards established by God, witnessing to the world the holiness in life lived for and with God. They are to love God with all their hearts, souls, and strength.

Jesus did not change this declaration in any way. It is at the heart of the Christian way of life as well. What Jesus did was throw light on the meaning of living for and with God, of loving the Lord your God with all your heart, soul, and strength. He insists that to love God is to love others, and to love them as we love ourselves. "Hear, O Israel!... Take to heart these words" (Deuteronomy 6:4, 6).

A note regarding our Eucharistic Chapel

In August, a decision was made to add a tabernacle into the sanctuary of the main worship space, in order to both be in line with diocesan directives as well as facilitating the flow of the Mass. There was a desire as well to retain the Eucharistic Chapel as a more intimate, comfortable, and welcoming space where people could come and pray at anytime throughout the day. And so our goal has been to create two distinct spaces within the church: the larger worship area, which is for all of our regular Mass times; and a smaller more intimate setting for personal prayer or smaller prayer gatherings. To make this distinction more evident, we will be lowering curtains over the glass dividers to separate the two spaces. Also, in the coming weeks, further changes will be made to make the Eucharistic Chapel as welcoming and inviting as possible.

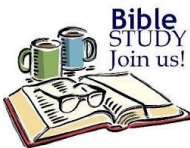

To this end, we would ask that parishioners no longer use the Eucharistic Chapel as an “overflow” as the space will no longer be conducive to that purpose. For those who prefer to keep their distance from others during Mass, we would kindly ask you to use the south side of the church as it is normally less crowded than the rest of the pews. We thank you for your willingness and understanding during this time of change. Feel free to reach out with any questions or concerns you might have.

In Christ, Fr. Greg Roth

St. Anne’s Bible Study:

Join us every Wednesday morning from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. for bible study in the parish hall! Even if you have never attended before, you are more than welcome to join! Our bible study is for anybody who wishes that they understood the bible better than they do now. If you plan on joining in this week, please prepare by reading Genesis 9-10. For more information contact Daniel Pettipas at dpettipas@rcdos.ca

Diocesan Training for Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will be held via Zoom from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 13.

This is a great opportunity for all new and returning Eucharistic Ministers. Register for this online training at <https://form.jotform.com/242756980938272> or for more info contact Marilyn Jackson at (306) 659-5836.

Book & Table of Remembrance
We will have a Table of Remembrance set up in the church for the month of November to remember and pray for those we have lost. Please place your memorial cards on the table in the church. You can pick them up at the end of the month. You are also invited to add the names of your loved ones who have died to our Book of Remembrance in the welcome area of the church. We will be praying for them throughout the month of November.
