St. Anne’s Bible Study:

Our next session will be on January 15th from 9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m. We will continue examining the lives of the twins Esau and Jacob, especially the tricky means by which Jacob steals Esau’s blessing from Isaac. Remember, anybody is free to join this bible study at any time; the doors are wide open! Read Genesis chapters 26 and 27 in preparation. For more information contact Daniel Pettipas at dpettipas@rcdos.ca

Warm-up location seeking donations - The overnight warm-up centre for men at St. Mary Parish in Saskatoon needs some items for its guests. This year nearly 1000 people have taken refuge at the site and many lack basic winter clothing to stay warm once they leave for the day. Items most in need are blankets, mitts, toques, and men's winter boots. New or gently used items can be dropped off at St. Mary’s Rectory at 211 Avenue O South, Monday-Thursday from 9-12 and 1-4. For more information, you can contact the parish at (306) 244-2983.

Alpha Marriage Course- LAST CHANCE!

Increased intimacy in marriage is not automatic. Consider taking time to strengthen the connection between you and your spouse this winter. The Marriage Course is for couples who are seeking to strengthen their relationship. Some couples do the course to intentionally invest in their relationship, others are looking to address more specific challenges. Wherever you find yourselves, there is a place for you! Join us for 7 sessions between January 16th and February 26th from 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. in the Fr. Donlevy Hall for video presentations, private discussion with just you and your spouse, and delicious desserts! Register online at www.saintannes.ca or contact Erin Hickey at ehickey@rcdos.ca for more information.

Baptism of the Lord – January 12th, 2025

Taking Up Christ's Ministry –Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Before the Second Vatican Council, ministry was considered by many to be a Protestant word, and the religious leader who did it was called a minister. Catholics had priests and bishops who received and administered sacraments. Religious women did the Church's work in schools and hospitals. The council turned our understanding of Church ministry inside out. We've come to realize that with baptism—not ordination or religious profession—comes the responsibility of ministry. Catholics and Protestants alike understand that their commitment to justice and peace is a genuine ministry that seeks to establish God's reign in our world. Many interpreters believe that the account of Jesus' baptism points to the inauguration of his own ministry. The theology expressed is certainly Trinitarian (the Voice, Jesus identified as Son, and the Dove). However, the revelation of his true identity occurs as he begins preaching and healing. Some say his baptism was meant to strengthen him as he began his public life. Others believe it was meant to strengthen his disciples.

Today, we maintain that by baptism, we are all children of God. Vatican II has enlightened us as to what this really means. Pope Francis has reminded us that by virtue of our baptism, we are missionary disciples (see Evangelii Gaudium, 120). In other words, as disciples, we follow Jesus, learning from him. As missionaries, we go out to spread his Good News to others. It is now for us to take up the ministry where he left off, to be faithful servants with whom God is well pleased.

Envelope Update: Offertory envelopes have been available in the welcome area for a month and many have not been picked up. To reduce mailing costs and environmental waste, we will accommodate online and preauthorized users whose special collection boxes remain here by switching to virtual envelopes. You may donate to special collections on our website using the donation dropdown. The special collection for January is Mary, Mother of God New Year’s Offering. Please contact Trina at tward@rcdos.ca if you have questions. Thank you for your generous support.

If you ordered additional photos when taking your pictorial directory pictures, please visit the main office to check if they have arrived. If they are not yet available, you can reach out to IPC Photo directly at customerservice@ipcphoto.ca or by phone at 1-800-391-5161 ext. 115. Be sure to have your order number on hand for reference.

We are making progress on the parish photo directory and hope to have it printed in the coming months. If you did not have your picture taken but would still like your name listed in the directory, please contact Heather Hickey at hickey@rcdos.ca.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation!

“Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term, that her penalty is paid, that she has received from the Lord’s hand double for all her sins...See the Lord God comes with might, and his arm rules for him: his reward is with him, and his recompense before him. He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.” Isaiah 40:1-2, 10-12
