Rosaries Needed!

We are looking for donation of gently used / new rosaries to send in April to our friends of Sacred Heart Cathedral in Zomba, Malawi. You can drop them off in the marked basket on the back table in the welcome area. The rosary is a beautiful and strong devotion for our friends in Malawi. Gifting and praying the rosary is an amazing way to be in solidarity through prayer.

There will be a Knights of Columbus Youth Hockey Challenge for youth ages 9-14 from 12:30pm to 1:30pm on Sunday March 23 (after the 11am mass) in the Church Parking Lot at St. Anne's Parish behind the church. We will then tally their scores so that there are age group winners for boys and girls. There is no cost but they will have to register at 12:30pm on the day of the competition and have a parent/guardian consent form signed. 3rd Sunday of Lent –March 23rd, 2025

I Am! -Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

If you have ever tried to explain a profound experience of love, fear, or excitement; of music, nature, or life itself, you know that no words can adequately capture the essence of that experience. If it is thus with a human experience, what must it be like with an experience of God? Such was the situation with Moses. He came upon a bush that was burning, yet not burning up. He probably thought that this was an unfamiliar natural phenomenon. It was only as he got closer and a voice spoke to him that he realized it was not natural at all. It was a sacred event unfolding at a sacred place. There, God said, “I am the God of your father” (Exodus 3:6). This was an identification, but not a name. It was only later, when Moses asks for God’s personal name, that God’s real identity was revealed. Or was it?

Scholars agree that the name given is some form of the verb “to be,” but they are not in agreement as to which form. Is it “I am who I am,” “I will be who I will be,” or “I cause to be what has come to be”? The name indicates that God is the power of existence, but it is not clear what this means or how it works. Some commentators maintain that God is telling Moses and us, This is as close to my full identity as you can come. You wouldn’t understand it anyway. Be satisfied knowing that “I Am.”

External debt and ecological debt: Who owes whom?

Peru is facing an ecological debt crisis as extractive industries, often foreign-owned, plunder its natural resources, harming the environment and human rights.

These industries contribute to the unjust enrichment of the Global North at the expense of the Global South. Thus, as countries in the Global South incur financial debts that further impoverish them, they are owed a mounting ecological debt by the Global North that is never settled.

Our partners, the Episcopal Commission for Social Action (CEAS) and the Institute Bartolomé de Las Casas (IBC) work closely with affected communities, advocating for justice and sustainable alternatives. This Lent, discover the work of CEAS and IBC by reading our Mini-magazine and watching our testimonial video at devp.org/lent.
