Children & Youth Ministry

Sanctuary Youth Series - Fridays this Spring @ BJM during lunch (Room 158)

The Sanctuary Youth Series provides a valuable opportunity for our community to support the mental wellbeing of our youth. In addition to delivering age-appropriate content that offers both theological and psychological perspectives, the series fosters important conversations between young people and trusted adults in their lives. Studies show that young people who feel connected to adults are more resilient when navigating mental health challenges. Over 8 weeks we will engage students in conversations that will raise awareness, reduce stigma, foster resilience, and increase help-seeking. It will also offer them the opportunity to hear from other young people of faith as they share their lived experiences of mental health challenges. It will be facilitated by Colm Leyne and Jennifer Chevrier, BJM Chaplain.

See <http://sanctuarymentalhealth.org/youth/> to watch trailer and for more info.

While free, we invite you to RSVP for planning to cpleyne@rcdos.ca

Every Nation, Race, People, and Tongue -Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Today's readings tell us of the Church's universality. The Church might have been born of the people of Israel, but, from its beginning, it was meant to spread throughout the world—and it has.

The first reading describes the success that Paul and Barnabas enjoyed in cities in what today is Turkey. Believing that Jesus was the fulfillment of Jewish expectation, these missionaries naturally went first to the synagogues, where they preached to the Jewish people and those who had recently converted to Judaism.

The next week, the entire city came to hear them. This angered many of the Jewish people. The text says that this was because they were jealous of Paul and Barnabas. Jealous of what?

We know that many Jewish Christians believed that converts had to accept the practices of Judaism before they were considered full members of the Jesus movement. (See Acts 15:1.) They maintained that everyone should be the same. Mention of converts in this story suggests this may have been the issue. Whatever the problem might have been, the movement spread, adapting itself as it did.

The vision reported in Revelation assures us that, in the end, the spread of the gospel will see completion. It will have been preached to and accepted by "every nation, race, people, and tongue" (7:9). This speaks of genuine universality rather than uniformity. This is unity among diversity. The distinctiveness of nation, race, people, and tongue will be respected, because what really unites them is the "blood of the Lamb" (Revelation 7:14).

Priests' Pension & Retirement Fund

"The Lamb will be their shepherd, and He will guide them to springs of the water of life."
— Revelation 7:17

Last weekend marked the beginning of the annual Priests' Pension and Retirement Fund Appeal across our Diocese.

Throughout our lives, our priests have been there during the most sacred and significant moments — baptizing our children, celebrating our weddings, guiding us through times of loss, and nourishing our faith through the sacraments and their dedicated service. Even in retirement, many of them continue to offer pastoral care, celebrate Mass, and support our parishes in countless ways.

Now, it's our turn to give back.

This appeal is our opportunity to thank them — to show our appreciation for all they've done and continue to do — by helping ensure their retirement years are lived with dignity, comfort, and care. You may have already received a letter or email from the Catholic Foundation with details about how to support this important fund. You can also find all the information on their website by downloading the newsletter. <https://dscf.ca/wp-content/uploads/2025/04/2025-PPR-PACKAGE-.pdf>

There are several ways to give:

Online at <https://dscf.ca/online-giving/>

1. Through your parish, by placing your donation in the offertory collection
2. Using the QR codes in the bulletin and newsletter
3. By phone at 306-659-5837 if you prefer to give by credit card with assistance

Every contribution, no matter the size, helps. Your generosity supports the priests who have walked with us in faith — let's walk with them now in gratitude.

Thank you for your continued support and love for those who have given their lives in service to Christ and His Church.
