6th Sunday of Easter – May 25th, 2025

Times Are a-Changin' -Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Today's gospel expands on a theme mentioned on the fourth Sunday of Easter, namely, change in religious practice. Many good people find some Second Vatican Council changes difficult to accept. For example, they may not like the new Mass form or leniency in Church discipline. This dissatisfaction is not necessarily because they are stubborn or unbending. It could be they were taught that the truth of the Church is eternal and unchanging, and they want to see that reflected in the liturgy.

The fundamentals of our faith as expressed in the Creed have not changed, but the ways we understand or practice our faith have gradually developed. For instance, the Mass is still the Mass, with two essential parts. Yet, the wording of some prayers has changed, and, at Mass, we stand more and kneel less. Most are cultural changes, but there are some changes in theological understandings, too. We now recognize the religious value of other faith traditions; interfaith marriage is allowed with special permission; and we understand the teachings of the Bible in new ways.

Today's reading from Acts shows that, from its beginning, the Church changed. Paul and Barnabas did not require Gentile believers to conform to circumcision—a Jewish, not Christian, practice. Dissension arose. But, the Holy Spirit helped the leaders in Jerusalem move beyond long-standing past practices and into a new way of being faithful. We believe the Holy Spirit continues to work through believers to ensure that the gospel is always faithful, yet newly meaningful.
