Pentecost Sunday –June 8th, 2025

Different Gifts, Service, and Workings -Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

Paul’s choice of words, found in his instruction to the Corinthians, is telling. Gifts refer to certain actions of the Holy Spirit; service is assistance within the community; and workings point to the dynamic power of God. Together, these realities might raise questions, such as, What do I have? What can I do? How can I do it? This is the lesson of Pentecost.

We all possess remarkable gifts and abilities, some of which we might not even know we have until we are called upon to exercise them. Many interpreters think Paul was referring here to the extraordinary spiritual gifts that became obvious during liturgical services— gifts like speaking in tongues. However, he expands this list to include gifts such as teaching, generosity, and acting with mercy. (See Romans 12:6–8.) Many of us possess these gifts.

As for service, all we have to do is look around to find people in our families, our parishes, and our workplaces who need our help, even if it is simple and limited. We cannot excuse ourselves by thinking, I can’t. I don’t have what it takes.

The feast we celebrate today reminds us that we have been given the power of the Holy Spirit, working through our gifts and talents, to serve others. Everyone can do something; everyone must do something. Paul underscores this with the image of the body, which is made up of different parts. Either we work together doing what we can, or the entire body suffers. Remember, we have the power of the Spirit.
