All Souls' Day – November 2nd, 2025

Saints with a Small "S" - Mary Katharine Deeley

I had a wonderful mentor in my early adulthood who taught me about the beauty of the Liturgy of the Hours and the importance of theological reflection. He passed away years ago, and several times a year I remember him and offer thanks to God for his presence in my life.

On the Solemnity of All Saints (November 1), we celebrate people whom the Church as a whole knows and recognizes as holy men and women who led lives of obedience to God and openness to grace. Today, we celebrate the countless others, known only to families and friends or in certain villages and countries, who lived and died as people of faith, striving to be disciples of Christ and certainly being examples for all who knew them.

In several of his epistles, St. Paul exhorts all of his listeners to be saints with a small "s"—women and men who cooperate with grace and allow God to work through them. That same exhortation applies to us today. Holiness is not solely for people in the past or for priests and religious. It's the goal for all of us. And we have known many of them—grandparents, uncles and aunts, parents, mentors, and other people important to us. They've been role models and guides. They've not just talked faith. They've lived faith. They won't be known by the entire Church, but today is their feast day because they showed us what is possible when we allow God to lead us.

“Listen kindly to our prayers, O Lord, and, as our faith in your Son, raised from the dead, is deepened, so may our hope of resurrection for your departed servants also find new strength. We will meet the First Tuesday of the month from 7-8 pm. (Note: Our first meeting is an exception and will be on a Monday, November 3rd). Women are invited to gather for one hour of guided prayer, which always includes a Rosary (please bring your Rosary) All women are welcome. Many who come are mothers, grandmothers, aunts, and confirmation sponsors, following the example of St. Monica in her perseverance in prayer.
This is not a support group, and no sensitive information is shared.

St. Anne’s Bible Study:

This week we begin reading the Gospel of Luke! If you have never joined us before, now is a perfect place to start. We will be reading and discussing the first chapter of Luke’s Gospel, which is richly populated with some of the most powerful verses in scripture that have informed the Church’s prayer for generations. Come and discover more! Join us every Wednesday morning from 9:30 to 11:00 a.m. each week for bible study in the living room. For more information contact Daniel Pettipas at dpettipas@rcdos.ca

HELLO everyone! Summer is behind us; WINTER is upon us! But not before we finish cheering on our favorite football team, Saskatchewan Rough Riders. What better way to celebrate the 2025 Grey Cup (even if our team is not in) then to start with some homemade baking for your upcoming Grey Cup party. Saint Anne's Catholic Women's League of Canada will once again be hosting our semi-annual Bake Sale the weekend of November 15 and 16, 2025.

If you love to bake, please consider donating some of your creative wonders for our sale and have them delivered to the Welcome Area of the church between 2:00 and 4:00 pm on November 15, 2025.

- We would very much appreciate if you could pack your baking in quantities of either 6 or 12 pieces (where possible). It makes it a lot easier for our volunteers to price.
- The baking will be sold after the 5:00 pm (on the 15th), 9:00 am and 11:00 am masses (on the 16th). There will not be a bake sale following the 7:00 pm mass..
- If you are not a baker, no problem; perhaps consider volunteering at the bake sale, and of course financial donations always welcomed.
- Anyone who purchases our baking is provided one opportunity to place a guess on the number of chocolates in a container for a draw, maybe let your child take the guess! The winner will be contacted to pick up their prize from the church during the next week. They will also have their names announced in the bulletin.
- All proceeds of the bake sale will be provided to charitable organizations within our parish and/or Saskatoon communities.

If you would like to volunteer to help at the bake sale following the masses, please contact Anne Ashcroft at 306-713-1612 or a.ashcroft@shaw.ca.

We are very blessed to receive so much support from our members and parish community at these CWL fundraising events. GO RIDERS GO!
