Our Lord, Jesus Christ, King of the Universe –November 23rd, 2025Hail, Christ our King! - Sr. Dianne Bergant, CSA

The readings for today's feast create a collage of images that capture different characteristics of Christ's kingship. "Shepherd" assures us that his kingly rule is characterized by tenderness. "King of Israel" locates him squarely within human time and space. "Image of the Invisible God" acclaims his divine origin. "Firstborn of All Creation" places him over the entire created world. "Source of All Created Things" acknowledges him as the model after which all things were fashioned. "Head of the Body, the Church" underscores the intimacy and interrelationship between him and all those joined to him through faith and baptism. "Firstborn of the Dead" acclaims his resurrection and guarantees the resurrection of those who will follow him into death.

The gospel's image of Christ as the crucified king clearly interprets all the other images.

He is a shepherd who protects his flock with his life; he is a king who rules with dedication despite shame and defeat; he is divine yet accepted death on a cross. He was God who became a vulnerable child of earth, a simple man who offered himself as sacrifice, the one through whom we will all enjoy resurrection from the dead.

In the last words of the gospel, Jesus opens the gates of his kingdom to a repentant sinner: "Today you will be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:43). This is what all of us long to hear: words that are empty when coming from one who has no authority but are charged with power when spoken by the One who is king over us all.

St. Anne's Parish Truth and Reconciliation Committee is committed to informing our congregation about opportunities to learn more about the journey of Truth and Reconciliation. Here is an opportunity that may interest you:

On Nov 25th the Mennonite Central Committee will be offering an opportunity to learn about the connections between identity, poverty, and mass incarceration. Participants take on different roles with varying resources and challenges, moving through a game to show how factors like race, socioeconomic status, and past criminal records affect a person's journey and can lead to or perpetuate the cycle of imprisonment. The game is called "You Got Booked", and is free to the public from 7 to 9. For more information, and to register, contact Heather Peters at heatherpeters@mccsk.ca.

On behalf of our CWL Council, we would like to shout out a huge THANK YOU to all who supported our bake sale. We would also like to acknowledge all our volunteers, CWL members and parishioners, who worked, brought donations, purchased baking or other items, or offered a financial donation. We had a tremendous display of baking and with your efforts the event was very successful. We realized a profit of $1456.20 with some donations still coming in. Various charities are supported through our CWL, and this money will be donated appropriately. The winner of the jar of candy was Heather Hickey with a guess of 196. There were actually 197 candies in the jar. Thank you all so much for participating! God Bless each and every one of you! Enjoy the upcoming festive season! Until our next event, God Bless you all!
