Millions of Monicas

At St. Anne's, women gather to pray for our children in need of God's mercy and a return to the Church. Our next gathering will be Monday, June 1st from 7-8pm (we normally gather the first Monday of the month).

We spend one hour in guided prayer, which always includes a Rosary.

All women are welcome. Many who come are mothers, grandmothers, aunts, and confirmation sponsors.

This is not a support group, and no sensitive information is shared.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity – May 31st, 2026

God Up There, God Down Here. - Fr. Joseph Juknialis

Which of these images best describes your God: gardener, friend, police officer, Santa Claus, magician, doctor, lover, parent, judge, the Force?

Theologically, God is both transcendent and immanent, up there and down here. In other words, God is powerful, majestic, awesome, and allknowing but always close, caring for us, forgiving, and comforting. Most of us lean toward one or the other in our spirituality. Whichever image you choose will tell you something about how you usually relate to God. None of the images are necessarily right or wrong unless it locks us into relating to God in only one way.

Our tendency to relate to God as either transcendent or immanent may influence our preference for liturgical style. If we view God primarily as transcendent, we will tend to appreciate the Mass as a sacrifice, celebrated formally with processions, incense, and majestic music. If we tend to relate to God as more immanent, we will tend to appreciate the Mass as a eucharistic meal with the community gathered around the altar table, singing simpler music. As God is both transcendent and immanent, we should not have to choose. The ideal liturgical style would incorporate something of both transcendence and immanence.

Today's story of Moses, who climbs Mount Sinai and there bows down in worship before God, is a story of the transcendence of God—majestic, powerful, awesome to behold. Today's gospel is of an immanent God who loved the world so much that he sent his Son not to condemn it, but to save it.

AI and the Human Person: What Does the Church teach?:

Do you have questions about AI? Whether you are unfamiliar with the topic or whether you use it on a daily basis, the new phenomenon of AI is something that the Church is thinking about, specifically Pope Leo recently released an encyclical on the topic of AI, entitled Magnifica Humanitas. St. Anne's will be hosting a presentation on this document and its implications in the hall on Thursday, June 18, at 7:00pm. Snacks and refreshments will be provided. There will be a presentation summarizing the main points of the encyclical as well as table discussion dealing with questions and personal experiences of AI, both good and bad. Whether you consider yourself an expert on AI or if this is the first time you've heard of it, you are welcome to join us either way.
