AI and the Human Person: What Does the Church teach?:

Do you have questions about AI? Whether you are unfamiliar with the topic or whether you use it on a daily basis, the new phenomenon of AI is something that the Church is thinking about, specifically Pope Leo recently released an encyclical on the topic of AI, entitled Magnifica Humanitas. St. Anne's will be hosting a presentation on this document and its implications in the hall on Thursday, June 18, at 7:00pm. Snacks and refreshments will be provided. There will be a presentation summarizing the main points of the encyclical as well as table discussion dealing with questions and personal experiences of AI, both good and bad. Whether you consider yourself an expert on AI or if this is the first time you've heard of it, you are welcome to join us either way.

Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ – June 7th, 2026

Food for the Day. - Fr. Joseph Juknialis

Just as the darkest of nights brings out stars we might never notice otherwise, so is it that when we find ourselves lost in the dark of life's deserts, the slightest kindnesses can bring us to a brief oasis in a day otherwise oppressive. Most often, such moments come as gifts, unearned—even undeserved. Yet, they are blessings to us.

Psychologists tell us that if we find ourselves down in the dumps and depressed, we can find hope by naming three things that happened that day that were pure gifts—a phone call from a friend, a compliment, a free cup of coffee, a good bill of health from the doctor. Remembering them at the end of the day and giving thanks for them may not solve the issues that burden us, but they can put them in perspective, reminding us that life is a mix of both the good and the not-so-good.

Moses urged the people to recall all that God had done for them— bringing them out of Egypt, guiding them through the desert, leading them to water, and feeding them with manna. Amid their grumbling, their remembering offered them hope and the courage to go on.

Thus, what psychologists suggest is what God has been doing for us for thousands of years—God feeds us daily in large and small ways, all without our deserving it but out of his great generosity. Remember, then, how God has fed you.
