AI and the Human Person: What Does the Church teach?:

Do you have questions about AI? Whether you are unfamiliar with the topic or whether you use it on a daily basis, the new phenomenon of AI is something that the Church is thinking about, specifically Pope Leo recently released an encyclical on the topic of AI, entitled Magnifica Humanitas. St. Anne's will be hosting a presentation on this document and its implications in the hall on Thursday, June 18, at 7:00pm. Snacks and refreshments will be provided. There will be a presentation summarizing the main points of the encyclical as well as table discussion dealing with questions and personal experiences of AI, both good and bad. Whether you consider yourself an expert on AI or if this is the first time you've heard of it, you are welcome to join us either way.

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time – June 14th, 2026

Today the Gospel opens by telling the reader that Jesus was filled with compassion. The passage ends with Jesus instructing his newly appointed Apostles to perform miraculous feats including curing those with incurable ailments and even raising the dead. We can see that Jesus is acutely aware that humans are constantly engaged in dreadful conflicts that we are powerless to resolve on our own. There are times when we suffer and feel powerless to improve the situation we are in. Watching a loved one deteriorate in health, being unable to lift a friend's anxieties over their predicament, or finding our own selves as victims of mental and physical anguish can all be debilitating. What are we to do when we find ourselves in the midst of suffering and feel powerless to diminish that suffering? Christ is the answer to our powerlessness. Today's Gospel reminds us that Jesus walks with us in those moments when we feel most vulnerable. When we feel alone and weak, we need only reach out in prayer. Furthermore, Christ has given us the Church (descending from the Apostles whom he originally sent out). The Church provides us with many things, among which are companionship and support. Difficulties are part of life, but we need not face life's difficulties alone.

“when Jesus saw the crowds, he had compassion for them...”

Mt 9.36

~Andrew Hume
