There is a farewell guestbook for Fr Prosper in the Welcome Area. You are encouraged to leave a message or prayer for Fr Prosper in the book. We will leave the book up for the month of August to give everyone a chance to leave him a message. If you wish to attach a card or family picture, you can tape it in one of the pages.

St. Anne's Mom's Group

Join us Thursdays between 9 a.m. and 10 a.m. to come and go in the morning of relaxed visiting, informal prayer, and laughter. New mothers welcome with or without your children!

The Apostolate of The Precious Blood Devotion will meet in the chapel every Tuesday at 10:30-11:30 a.m. The group prays the rosary, the litany & chaplet of The Precious Blood. Everyone is welcome.

Music Ministry Help Needed:

All of St. Anne's regular Music Ministry leaders take well-deserved time off over the summer months. Due to this, there is a huge need for anyone who might want to contribute to Music ministry for any of the summer weekend Masses. If you're interested please contact Ken Neitz at kneitz@rcdos.ca

Please join us every Tuesday after morning Mass in the hall for coffee and a baked treat. It's so nice to have a quiet chance to get to know other parishioners!

On these Tuesdays, the praying of the Rosary will be moved to 8:05 am.

Prayer requests

We pray for those in our community who are sick, suffering or in hospital: may they be comforted in their time of need and be restored to good health. We also pray for those who care for them. We pray for ...

St. Anne's Parish Bereavement Team: Do you feel a calling for ministry to the heartbroken? Have you experienced the pain of grief, the consolation of faith and the comfort of a community of care? Our parish bereavement team would like to have a couple of additional volunteers serve in this beautiful ministry of accompaniment. It involves a care call to a recently bereaved person, the offer of a personal visit and the offer of delivering care booklets. Please contact Trina at tward@rcdos.ca or call the office at (306) 931-4700 to find out more.

Fishing for Treasures.- Fr. Joseph Juknialis

Much like still-fishing, which is when the fish ultimately find the one sitting quietly, waiting for the fish, most of the really treasured aspects of life somehow find us when we're not looking. Consider falling in love or discovering a friend, the job you enjoy so much that you'd almost do it for free, the hobby that gives you so much satisfaction, the creative gifts you never knew you had until you stumbled upon them later in life. To say nothing of the happiness that so many go looking for and never seem to find, while others are happy without ever seeking it out.

Wisdom, the gift Solomon asked for, is much like all of that. It seems to find us. Common sense, the stepchild of wisdom, is something most parents want their children to have; for some parents, it may be a source of great frustration as they try to make sure their children have it and use it. Wisdom is certainly a hint of the kingdom of heaven, but then so too is finding love and experiencing joy and living with a peace that refuses to be unsettled by the storms of life. All those are the buried treasures of which the gospel speaks; for some, these are the pearl of great price for which they look and look until it finds them, not unlike still-fishing. All are tastes of eternal life, buried treasures, and hidden pearls.
