When you are scheduled for a ministry, please remember to check your name on the sign-in sheet in the sacristy. It helps the Liturgy Coordinator keep track of who has arrived.**

O the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God!
How unsearchable are his judgements and how inscrutable his ways!
“For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counsellor?”
“Or who has given a gift to him, to receive a gift in return?”
For from him and through him and to him are all things.
To him be the glory forever.
Amen.

21st Sunday in Ordinary Time – August 23rd, 2026

The Jesus Question. Fr. Joseph Juknialis

Over the years, I’ve asked many people what they believe about Jesus and who he is for them. I’ve always nudged them away from the expected answer simply because I was interested in who he was for them down deep in their spirits. It’s been a whole wheelbarrow full of answers, yes it has, a full and varied garden. Some said they thought he was a very good human being, though they hedged when I asked if they thought he was also of God. Others thought he was a prophet, though they also backed away from anything that hinted of the divine. For some, Jesus was God dressed in human skin, as if he were simply playing at being human. Some labeled him a reformer, and others a teacher. None of them dismissed Jesus as irrelevant or a remnant of the past. And for many, Jesus is the truth professed by Peter: “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” He is the Word made flesh, the wisdom of God among us, the one who lives. In one way or another, all of us must answer the question Jesus asks of his disciples in today’s gospel: “Who do you say that I am?” The question is just as relevant today as it was when Jesus asked it. For some, their yes is without doubt. For others, it is a questioning journey of coming to faith. All of us are faced with that question: Who is Jesus for us today in the way we live our lives?
