Third Sunday in Ordinary time
January 27th, 2019

Sunday Readings: Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10 [Ezra said,] "Today is holy to the Lord your God. Do not lament, do not weep!" / 1 Corinthians 12:12-30 For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free. / Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21 [Jesus] stood up to read: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor."

How do we imagine the ministry of Jesus? What was it that he did? We know it ultimately ended in his passion, death, and resurrection, but what about his work among the people? Today's gospel reading, with Jesus quoting the prophet, gives us an indication as to what occupied the mind and thoughts of Jesus as he performed his ministry. He brings glad tidings to the poor, liberty to captives, sight to the blind, and freedom for the oppressed. This was the message of the prophet and to use a modern term, it is the mission statement of Jesus' ministry. If we want to be his followers, it is up to us to take on this mission statement as well. This ministry is in conformity with the prophets. It animated Jesus himself, and it should animate his followers. Jesus does not talk here about prayer, or doing liturgy, or even going to church. The ministry of Jesus is action in the world. And this action, as indicated by the mission statement, upends the powerful and the privileged. It ultimately (and fairly quickly) leads to Jesus' death. Faced with such a leader, will we be followers as well, undergoing our own paschal mystery? Or are we content to read about his ministry rather than do it, hear about it rather than practice it?

Diocesan Prayer - Prayer for Reverence for Life

Almighty God, giver of all that is good, we thank you for the precious gift of human life:

For life in the womb, coming from your creative power,

For the life of children, making us glad with their freshness and promise,

For the life of young people, hoping for a better world,

For the life of people who are disabled, teaching us that every life has value,

For the life of the elderly, witnessing to the ageless values of patience and wisdom.

Like Blessed Mary, may we always say "yes" to Your gift. Help us to realize the sacredness of human life and to respect and cherish it from conception to its natural end.

And bring us at last, O Father, to the fullness of eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

Let Us Pray

- ♦ Let us pray that our Church continue to promote reading and reflection upon the word of God as a means to promote Christian unity.
- ♦ Let us pray for our country: may we cultivate a profound reverence for life from conception to natural death.
- ♦ Let us pray for our candidates, catechumens, their teachers and sponsors: may they grow in love and knowledge.
